MAGNIFICAT AND NUNC DIMITTIS IN A

D. McK. Williams

AFTER THE THIRD COLLECT, HYMN

de Koven

1 God of our fathers, known of old,
Lord of our far-flung battle line,
Beneath whose awful hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine:
Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget.

2 The tumult and the shouting dies;
The captains and the kings depart;
Still stands thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart:
Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget.

3 If, drunk with sight of power, we loose
Wild tongues that have not three in awe,
Such boastings as the Gentiles use,
Or lesser breeds without the law:
Lord God of hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget.

4 For heathen heart that puts her trust
In reeking tube and iron shard;
All valiant dust that builds on dust,
And, guarding, calls not thee to guard:
For frantic boast and foolish word,
Thy mercy on thy people, Lord. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR THOSE IN THE SERVICES OF THE UNITED NATIONS

A Prayer to be repeated by all present:

Increase, O God, the spirit of neighbourliness among us, that in peril we may uphold one another, in calamity serve one another, in suffering tend one another and in homelessness and exile befriend one another. Grant us brave and enduring hearts that we may strengthen one another, till the disciplines and testing of these days be ended, and thou dost give again peace in our time, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE GRACE

The messages to and from H. M. the King, and H. E. the British Ambassador read by SIR GODFREY HAGGARD, K.C.M.G., C.V.O., O.B.E.

HYMN 445

O God, our help in ages past

St. Anne

SERMON

THE REVEREND CANON WEST

AT THE OFFERING, ANTHEM

Vaughan-Williams

Let us now praise famous men, and our fathers that begat us. Such as did bear rule in their kingdoms, men renowned for their power, leaders of the people by their counsels, and by their knowledge. Such as found out musical tunes, and recited verses in writing: All these were honoured in their generations and were the glory of their times. And some there be, which have no memorial, who are perished, as though they had never been. Their bodies are buried in peace, but their name liveth for evermore.

THE COLOUR GUARD SALUTE

THE LAST POST *

THE NATIONAL ANTHEMS

O say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars thro' the perilous night,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd were so gallantly streaming
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

God Save our Gracious King
Long live our noble King,
God save the King,
Send him victorious, happy
and glorious,
Long to reign over us.
God Save the King.

BRITISH BLOOD FOR AMERICAN FORCES

A nationwide campaign is now in progress to enlist all British born people in the United States to pledge their blood in collective comradeship between now and British Empire Day, May 24th, for transmittal to American Forces, now Britain's brothers-in-arms.

To sign up in this national enrollment, donors should write or go directly to the New York Chapter of the American Red Cross Blood Donor Service, 2 East 37th Street, to make an appointment, stating that they are pledging their British Blood for American Forces.
